

You Hit the Business Spot on the Road When You Use Sunday World Wants to Drive With Full tables in boarding-houses when Sunday World Wants announce vacancies. Use Three-Time Rate.

The World.

SPORTING EXTRA.

"Circulation Books Open to All."

"Circulation Books Open to All."

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 20, 1900.

PRICE ONE CENT.

CONVENTION FAILS TO NOMINATE

CONVENTION AT A GLANCE.

12.00—Hanna enters the Convention Hall and is received with applause. 12.05—Committee on Resolutions adjourned after completing its work. Senator Fairbanks and L. R. Quigg are now putting the document into shape. 12.08—The only "Chaucer" enters and is heartily cheered, especially by the women. 12.09—Hanna gets a rousing reception as he enters, a big policeman leading the way. Observing looked for a full minute. Senator Platt walked slightly in advance of the Governor, smiling contentedly.

12.30—Senator Platt, when asked concerning the Vice-Presidential nomination, said "there is absolutely no change in the situation." At the same time Roosevelt was standing back of him protesting to come admiring that he did not want the place.

12.35—Convention called to order. 12.37—Senator Woodruff announces that fifteen survivors of the first Republican Convention of 1860 were in the hall and would present some resolutions. The old men with a banner and a weather-worn flag took the stage and were greeted with much applause.

12.40—Scene Payne, of New York, reads report on contested seats. 12.41—Announcement that Adolph, of Delaware, had been sentenced was applauded.

12.45—Report of Committee on Credentials adopted. 12.46—Gov. Governor, of Ohio, Chairman of the Committee on Permanent Organization, makes his report.

12.47—Roosevelt and Gov. Shaw, of Iowa, appointed to assist Permanent Chairman Lodge to the chair. Great enthusiasm over Roosevelt.

12.50—Lodge begins address. 1.00—Reference to Hawaii causes enthusiasm. South Sea delegates stand in their seats during applause.

1.07—Lodge denounces the "infamous laws of Kentucky." Blue gown men yell appreciation. 1.10—Lodge ends speech.

1.15—Lodge presented with gavel made of wood from every State in the Union.

1.16—A Minnesota delegate presents a third gavel.

1.20—Sen. Bingham, of Pennsylvania, Chairman of Committee on Rules, makes report.

1.25—Quay offers resolution on amendment regarding the appointment of delegates and is cheered as he stands in the aisle. Chairman Lodge calls him "the Senator from Pennsylvania."

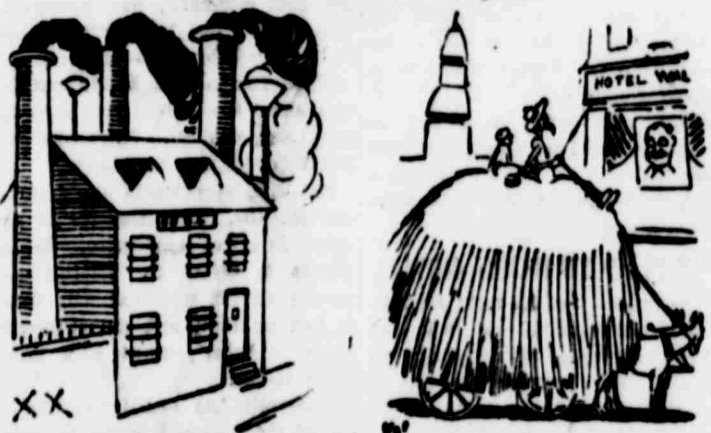

2.00—Quay walks down aisle to New York delegation and begins to speak. Is called to platform and gets a rousing reception that over-shadowed Roosevelt.

2.05—Quay finishes speaking on voice and is again cheered.

2.15—Debate on Quay's suggestion that rules 1 and 12 be put over until to-morrow and the others adopted. The rules and Quay's amendment all come up first thing to-morrow before the Vice-President is nominated.

2.16—Charles Fairbanks of Indiana, begins reading of platform. 2.20—Senators Hanna, Foraker, Lodge, Callahan and other leaders

Still Life in Philadelphia.

This is a picture of a Philadelphia club cooking dinner. The bare across the windows are to keep the members from falling out. Philadelphia street scene—Stopping in front of the Walton to take a look at Teddy's teeth.

PLANKS OF THE PLATFORM.

Republican platform says:

The Administration has proved that the gold standard is necessary to prosperity and the 16 to 1 silver coinage a fallacy.

President McKinley's administration is indorsed as "elevating and extending the influences" of the nation.

The platform calls not for a Nicaraguan Canal, but for an Isthmian canal.

It commends the wise administration of Cuba, Porto Rico, Hawaii and the Philippines.

"Our pledge to give Cuba her freedom will be kept," the platform asserts. "America's sovereignty over the Philippines must be maintained and the natives given all possible measure of liberty."

It commends the efforts of President McKinley to secure "open door" concessions from the powers in China.

The partition of Samoa is praised as freeing us from European entanglements.

The Monroe Doctrine is vigorously asserted, with the declaration that the rights and lives of American citizens will be protected all over the world.

Our possession of Manila Harbor, it is pointed out, will give us a great advantage in the Chinese trouble.

"We renew our allegiance to the gold standard, and for the purpose of equalizing and lowering rates of interest we favor such monetary legislation as will enable the varying needs of the season and of all sections to be promptly met in order that trade may be evenly sustained."

"Honest co-operation of capital" is to be fostered.

Conspiracies to control prices and create monopolies are to be condemned and prevented.

The protective tariff is the basis of stimulation of home markets and cheapened production.

Restriction of immigration of cheap labor and a higher limit of the age of child labor are urged.

President McKinley commended for his proffer of this country's good offices to end the South African war.

The creation of a new Cabinet office, the Department of Commerce, to further our foreign trade and control our consular service, is recommended.

are now in consultation to decide whether an attempt will be made to make nominations to-day. The belief is the Convention will adjourn without making either nomination to-day.

2.30 P. M.—The platform was adopted. 2.35—Convention adjourns till 10 A. M. Thursday.

2.50 to Philadelphia and Return Via Pennsylvania Railroad. 2.55—Senators Hanna, Foraker, Lodge, Callahan and other leaders

BOSTON.

1 2 6
NEW YORK.
0 0

BROOKLYN VS. PHILADELPHIA.

SCORE BY INNINGS.

PHILADELPHIA 1 0 0
BROOKLYN 0 0 1

WINNERS AT SHEEPSHEAD BAY.

FIRST RACE—1. Major Gifford 2. McNeekin 3.
SECOND RACE—1. Pentia 2. Delmar 3.
THIRD RACE—1. Roosevelt 2. David Garrick 3.
FOURTH RACE—1. Ames 2. Hollox Wood 3.

RESULTS AT ST. LOUIS.

FIRST RACE—1. Lash 2. Loretta 3. Macogni 3.
SECOND RACE—1. Wild Pirate 2. Amoroso 3.

RESULTS AT NEWPORT.

FIRST RACE—1. Lady Kent 2. Saffia 3.

SECOND SESSION OF CONVENTION

Gold Platform Adopted After a Lively Speech by Chairman Lodge—Lively Scenes in Big Hall.

CONVENTION HALL, PHILADELPHIA, June 20. Chairman Woodruff called the Convention to order at 12.30 o'clock.

Great crowds already filled the building, the stream having begun to pour in at 11 o'clock. Each leader was cheered as he entered.

The first demonstration occurred when Senator Hanna crossed the length of the hall to the stage. He could hardly make his way to the platform owing to the pressure of the delegates to greet him as he passed through the pit.

Senator Foraker, handsome and debonaire, aroused the next outburst. Gov. Foster Voorhees, of New Jersey, who arrived this morning from Europe, was warmly greeted. He was escorted to the platform by Senator Bewell.

HANNA ON HAND.

At 12 o'clock, after Senator Hanna had reached the platform, the ushers carried into the pit great bunches of red, white and blue pom-pom plumes. They looked like the game pieces which were in evidence at St. Louis four years ago and they were probably destined to perform a similar function in the great McKinley demonstration later in the day.

"Our Chaucer" was not overlooked to-day, and there was a great flutter of handkerchiefs from the ladies as he entered, but it was again Gov. Roosevelt who set the convention wild. Still wearing his rough-riding hat, he appeared as on yesterday at the main entrance. Senator Platt was by his side. The Governor did not appear so sternly austere as on yesterday. He smiled right and left to the applause of the multitude.

While the Roosevelt demonstration was in progress the eyes of the multitude were suddenly directed to a strange spectacle in the center of the stage, as the Chinese Minister, Wu Ting Fang, resplendent in rich Oriental silks, and accompanied by Mr. Chung, Secretary of Legation, also richly robed in silks, came down the middle aisle of the platform.

Minister Wu was first greeted at the entrance by Senator Burrows, who introduced him to several of the delegates.

(Continued on Second Page.)

Fast Train to the West, via Pennsylvania Railroad. Leave New York at 10:00 a.m. and arrive at Philadelphia at 1:00 p.m. For time table, see page 10.

HANNA TAKES UP BOOM FOR ROOSEVELT

ROOSEVELT CERTAIN TO BE NAMED!

Hanna Takes Up His Boom for Vice-President and Pushes It.

The New York Evening Post prints the following despatch from Philadelphia late this afternoon:

PHILADELPHIA, June 20.—To a newspaper man at 2.30 this afternoon Gov. Roosevelt said:

"Everything look like my nomination."

He added:

"I expect to be nominated. Will I refuse? I have never said that I would decline. I prevented the New York organization from coming here last night, but I will not stand in the way of a nomination coming from the West."

HANNA'S FLOP!

CONVENTION HALL, PHILADELPHIA, June 20.

The friends of the President, under the leadership of Senator Hanna, this afternoon are seriously contemplating taking up Gov. Roosevelt and thus not only making his nomination probably unanimous, but taking to themselves the credit of nominating him.

They say that the action of New York, under Senator Platt's guidance, in deciding to nominate Mr. Woodruff leaves the door open for this course, and that if, in view of this circumstance, Roosevelt is named, there can be no doubt that they will get the credit of the nomination.

The President has refused to take a position in the matter. His friends assert that any man he would name could be nominated.

At 11 o'clock to-day Senator Hanna went into a conference with Senators Lodge and Spooner. D. D. Odell was

(Special to The Evening World.)

CONVENTION HALL, PHILADELPHIA, June 20.

At 3.13 P. M. the Republican National Convention adjourned without having made a nomination for President. It will meet again at 10 A. M. to-morrow.

A platform indorsing McKinley's Administration, declaring for gold and sustaining the foreign policy of the Government was adopted, and was the chief business transacted.

In the Vice-Presidential situation there was a decided change. Hanna took up the Roosevelt boom and made the nomination of a "McKinley and Roosevelt" ticket seemingly certain.

PLATT COMES HOME; HE IS BROKEN DOWN.

PHILADELPHIA, June 20.

Senator Platt left for New York City early this afternoon. He made a remark before leaving that he did not care who was nominated for Vice-President.

Senator Platt will not return and will not take any further part in the convention because of his impaired health.

It is said Platt has had several fainting spells. Quay, with Odell's help, will be the real Platt leader of the New York forces here now.

Depew has also gone home to attend the Webb funeral.

present part of the time.

For the first time the Ohio Senator, having heard of Wisconsin's vote to support Roosevelt, showed signs of combination of Quay and Platt for it.

"The West and South are likely to weaken. He is reported to have said almost as soon as the Vice-Presidential matter was mentioned:

"Gentlemen, we do not want to lose sight of the fact that this Roosevelt sentiment is much greater than the date for Vice-President."